

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air "Stolen Honor," a one-sided program intended to affect the election, is a misuse of public airwaves.

Freedom of speech is a powerful thing, but those with power granted by the people have a solemn responsibility to serve the public good, not just their own selfish interests.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you
